

THE CITY

Discover Bordeaux and its region

Located in southwestern France, a region renowned for its historical heritage and vineyards, Bordeaux is a dynamic and attractive city. Voted the world capital of wine, it offers a variety of experiences within easy reach.

Easily accessible thanks to its international airport or by train from Paris (2 hours), Bordeaux is waiting for you to visit its historic districts and more than 300 monuments listed as UNESCO World Heritage Sites!

The Bordeaux region also offers a multitude of landscapes that are not to be missed: the beaches of the Atlantic Ocean, the Arcachon Basin, the Dune du Pilat, the vineyards of Saint-Emilion, and much more!

Your French language school in the heart of Bordeaux

Founded in 1982, the Alliance Française Bordeaux Nouvelle-Aquitaine offers French courses all year round and for all levels.
